

Mendocino County Youth Project Training Calendar for 2018-2019

Mendocino County Youth Project is able to provide evidence-based trainings through a partnership with Mendocino County Health and Human Services/ Family and Children’s Services, Title IV-E funding. This workshop is FREE only for Mendocino County helping professionals that work with youth in foster, juvenile justice probation, or youth at high risk of entering these systems.

For further inquiries please contact Aurelie Clivaz at aclivaz@mcyp.org or cell number (707)489-1258

Training Title & Facilitator Website	Training Description	Dates, Times & Location
Training Title: “Intermediate and Advanced Motivational Interviewing” with Dee-Dee Stout Website: http://www.deedeestoutconsulting.com/ Registration Link: Save the Date Note: This event is designed as a two trainings. We recommend that registrants attend both days, but a person can register for just one day of the workshop.	This workshop is designed to support helping professionals strengthen skills in the approach of Motivational Interviewing. This is a method by which professionals work with client to make positive decisions and accomplish established goals.	Fort Bragg Date: Monday & Tuesday Feb. 25th & 26th FB Location: Harbor Lite Lodge 120 N Harbor Dr, Fort Bragg Ukiah Date: Monday & Tuesday March 4th & 5th Ukiah Location: Alex Rorabaugh Center, 1640 S. State St., Ukiah Time: 9 a.m.-4 p.m.

Training Title: “Practical Application to Trauma-Informed Care” with Gabby Grant Website: https://www.trauma-informed-california.org/about-the-center/ Registration Link- FB: https://www.eventbrite.com/e/trauma-informed-safety-and-resilience-building-workshop-tickets-55991819038 Registration Link- Ukiah: https://www.eventbrite.com/e/trauma-informed-safety-and-resilience-building-workshop-tickets-56135422560	This workshop is designed to give practical strategies and tools for helping professionals cover the theory of Trauma Informed Care and how to apply it to work with youth in clinical settings.	Fort Bragg Date: Friday March 22nd FB Location: Mendocino Coast Clinics, 205 South St, Fort Bragg, CA 95437 Ukiah Date: Saturday March 23rd. Ukiah Location: Mendocino College Rm. 4210 Ukiah Time: 9 a.m.-4 p.m.
Training Title: “Mending Broken Hearts- Youth Version” (collaboration with Pinoleville Vocational Rehabilitation) Trainer Website: http://www.whitebison.org/Training/YouthPrograms.aspx Registration Link: Save the Date	The Purpose of the Mending Broken Hearts for youth program is to train facilitators who work with youth in a culturally-based way of healing from unresolved grief, loss, and incomplete relationships as an impact from intergenerational trauma of the boarding school era.	Date: Tuesday-Thursday April 23rd-25th Time: 8 a.m-5 p.m. Location: Mendocino College Rm. 4210 Ukiah
Training Title: Latino Cultural Competence With the National Compadres Network Website: http://www.nationalcompadresnetwork.org/ Registration Link: Save the Date	The focus of this training will be to strengthen helping professionals ability to be culturally relevant and sensitive when engaging with Latino families. Some of the issues addressed will be the current immigration challenges, deportation, as well as gang involvement.	Fort Bragg Date: Wednesday May 1st Level: Introduction Fort Bragg Location: Mendocino Coast Clinics 205 South St.

		Ukiah Dates: Thursday May 2nd Level: Introduction Friday May 3rd Level: Advanced Ukiah Location: TBA Time: 9 a.m.-4 p.m
--	--	---